Washington, D.C. – Today, Congressman Jerry McNerney (CA-11) announced he will hold free, confidential workshops in Brentwood and Mountain House this month to provide information to families facing foreclosure or who are worried about making their mortgage payments.

The event in Brentwood will be held on Friday, August 14th from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Brentwood Community Center and is hosted in conjunction with the City of Brentwood. The event in Mountain House will take place on Saturday, August 15th from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Bethany Elementary School and is hosted in conjunction with the Mountain House Community Services District.

HUD-certified counselors from ByDesign Financial Solutions and other agencies will be in attendance to offer financial counseling, advice and recommendations. Representatives from several mortgage companies, including Chase and Freddie Mac will also be on hand to offer information at both events. Representatives from Bank of America will be present at the Mountain House event.

These events are in a workshop format so those seeking help are encouraged to stop by at any point during the event. Also, attendees are encouraged to bring all relevant financial documents with them. For more information, contact Congressman McNerney's Pleasanton office at 925-737-0727 or the Stockton office at 209-476-8552.
